

Ching Feng

A Journal on Christianity and Chinese Religion and Culture

NEW SERIES, VOLUME 19, NUMBERS 1–2, 2020

Celebrating 500 Years of the Reformation*
The Reformation's Culturally
Transformative Influences and Impacts:
European and Asian Cultural Perspectives

- Eastern and Western Perspectives on the Reformation and Its Impacts 1
KEITH KA FU CHAN, GEORGE KAM WAH MAK,
AND BENEDICT SHING BUN CHAN
- Pineapple and Herring: How the Roman Catholic Church
Adapted Protestant Reform Principles to Create a Global Missionary Presence 5
PHILIP JENKINS
- The Ecological Heritage of Protestantism
from a Chinese Christian Perspective 21
LAI PAN-CHIU
- Culturally Transformative Impacts from the Reformation
in Michelangelo's Last Judgment (1530s) and Liang Qichao's New People Theory (1902) 49
LAUREN F. PFISTER

The Early Accommodation of German Sacramental Theology in China:
A Case Study of the Confession, Translation, and Commentary of the Rhenish Missionaries 71

WU KIN-PAN

Reformed Traditions and Human Rights:
Friends or Foes? 97

KWAN KAI-MAN

A Consequential Evaluation of a Christian
Approach to International Human Rights 129

BENEDICT SHING BUN CHAN

Other Articles

The Semantics and Pragmatics of Translating the CUV Bible 157

JERRY HWANG

人格救國——余日章的基督教救國論
Saving the Nation through Character Development:
David Z. T. Yui's Christian Approach to National Salvation 175

TAI KWUN-HO 戴觀豪

Book Review

佩里·施密特—里克爾。一花一世界
——分形理論視角下的佛耶對話
Perry Schmidt-Leukel. *To See a World in a Flower:
A Fractal Interpretation of the Relation between Buddhism and Christianity* 197

GU ROUYAN

Reproduced with permission of copyright owner.
Further reproduction prohibited without permission.