

Bei QIN
Associate Professor
Department of Accountancy, Economics and Finance
Email: beiqin@hkbu.edu.hk

Chinese Name

秦蓓

Qualifications

Economics/Economics and Public Affairs, PhD, Stockholm University
Award Date: 24 May 2013

Employment

Associate Professor

Department of Accountancy, Economics and Finance
Hong Kong Baptist University
1 Sept 2024 → present

Research outputs

The political economy of social media in China

Qin, B., Strömberg, D. & Wu, Y., 27 Nov 2023, The Political Economy of Social Media. Campante, F. R., Durante, R. & Tesei, A. (eds.). Paris; London: CEPR Press, p. 175-184 10 p.

Media bias in China

Qin, B., Strömberg, D. & Wu, Y., Sept 2018, In: American Economic Review. 108, 9, p. 2442-2476 39 p.

Why does China allow freer social media? Protests versus surveillance and propaganda

Qin, B., Strömberg, D. & Wu, Y., 1 Dec 2017, In: Journal of Economic Perspectives. 31, 1, p. 117-140 31 p.

Wealth, Education and Demand for Medical Care: Evidence from Rural China

Feng, J., Qin, B. & Yu, Y., Apr 2010, Investing in Human Capital for Economic Development in China. Liu, G. G., Zhang, S. & Zhang, Z. (eds.). World Scientific Publishing Co. Pte Ltd, p. 215-230 16 p.

Grants

Projects

How does social media drive the adjudication of food safety cases?

QIN, B. & Chiang, C.
1/01/24 → 30/06/26

Working Papers

"Social Media and Collective Action in China" (with David Strömberg and Yanhui Wu), Econometrica, conditional accepted.

"Corruption and Asymmetric Sanctions: Theory and Evidence from China" (with Maria Perrotta Berlin, Martin Dufwenberg and Giancarlo Spagnolo), Submitted.

“Financial Attention and the Disposition Effect: An Analysis of Attention-grabbing Stocks in the Chinese Stock Market”
(with Deng Pan and Donghui Shi)

Personal Website

<https://sites.google.com/view/beiqin>